pastor's message

Are you adventurous when it comes to food? Some people are willing to try just about anything new and exotic, while others are very wary of new and different foods. I love to eat and especially enjoy trying different cuisines. The sense of taste, in my opinion, is one of the greatest gifts God has given to us. What are your favorites in the taste department? Some of my favorites are:

Fruit:	mango
Vegetable	eggplant
Fish	salmon
Meat	roast pork
Dessert	anything with whipped cream
Cuisine	French

How uninteresting and bland life would be if food all tasted the same. The Scripture tells us: "Taste and see the goodness of the Lord." Many people try a taste of everything under the sun before they finally come to try the delicious taste of God. After searching for God in all the wrong places, St. Augustine asked himself, "What do I love when I love my God? It is the fragrance of flowers, the harmony of time, the melody of music? No. And yet – it is a kind of fragrance, a kind of harmony, a kid of melody in my secret soul. That is what I love when I love my God."

St. Augustine said it so beautifully – but the experience can be just as genuine for us. "Taste and see the goodness of the Lord."

All praises to God,
